THE UNIVERSITY OF BRITISH COLUMBIA

iSchool (Library, Archival & Information Studies)
Faculty of Arts

Attendance: Attendance of each and every class is mandatory. If you have a good reason for missing class, you have to let me know by email as soon as you know it.

Evaluation: All assignments will be marked using the evaluative criteria given on the SLAIS web site. If you are late in submitting your assignment the penalty will be 2% of the mark per day, unless you submit a medical certificate or have some special agreement based on exceptional circumstances.

Written & Spoken English Requirement: Written and spoken work may receive a lower mark if it is, in the opinion of the instructor, deficient in English.

Access & Diversity: Access & Diversity works with the University to create an inclusive living and learning environment in which all students can thrive. The University accommodates students with disabilities who have registered with the Access and Diversity unit: [<https://students.ubc.ca/about-student-services/access-diversity>]. You must register with the Disability Resource Centre to be granted special accommodations for any on-going conditions.

Religious Accommodation: The University accommodates students whose religious obligations conflict with attendance, submitting assignments, or completing scheduled tests and examinations. Please let your instructor know in advance, preferably in the first week of class, if you will require any accommodation on these grounds. Students who plan to be absent for family obligations, or other similar commitments, cannot assume they will be accommodated, and should discuss with the instructor before the course drop date. UBC policy on Religious Holidays: <http://equity.ubc.ca/days-of-significance-calendar/>

Academic Integrity

Plagiarism

The Faculty of Arts considers plagiarism to be the most serious academic offence that a student can commit. Regardless of whether or not it was committed intentionally, plagiarism has serious academic consequences and can result in expulsion from the university. Plagiarism involves the improper use of somebody else's words or ideas in one's work. The UBC policy on Academic Misconduct is available here: <http://www.calendar.ubc.ca/Vancouver/index.cfm?tree=3,54,111,959>.

It is your responsibility to make sure you fully understand what plagiarism is. Many students who think they understand plagiarism do in fact commit what UBC calls "reckless plagiarism." The UBC Learning Commons has a resource page on how to avoid plagiarism, with policies on academic integrity and misconduct found here: <http://learningcommons.ubc.ca/resource-guides/avoid-plagiarism/>

If after reading these materials you still are unsure about how to properly use sources in your work, please ask your instructor for clarification.

Additional course information:

Class Presentations: On the first day of class I will distribute the list of the class presentations, with instructions.

Final Essay: Please, consult with me at the beginning of November on the topic of the essay you wish to write. I prefer footnotes to endnotes. For footnotes and bibliography use the Chicago Manual of Style. The 3000 words limit does not include footnotes and bibliography.
