Term appointments for Adjunct Professor and Sessional Lecturer

UBC School of Information invites applications for term appointments to teach the following in-person courses for the academic year Winter 2022-2023:

- ARST 516 - Management of Current Records
- LIBR 516 - Information Asset Management
- LIBR 554 - Database Design
- LIBR 559C - Python Programming
- LIBR 575 - Academic Libraries
- LIBR 579G - Introduction to Archives for Librarians

Adjunct Professors and Sessional Lecturers are expected to prepare and teach a 3-credit course during the term. Each course comprises of usually thirteen classes of three hours each. The current salary for a 3-credit course is approximately $8,000.

The School of Information will consider applicants with a PhD or Master’s degree in Library, Archival and Information studies, and with relevant professional experience.

Equity and diversity are essential to academic excellence. An open and diverse community fosters the inclusion of voices that have been underrepresented or discouraged. We encourage applications from members of groups that have been marginalized on any grounds enumerated under the B.C. Human Rights Code, including sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, racialization, disability, political belief, religion, marital or family status, age, and/or status as a First Nation, Métis, Inuit, or Indigenous person. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority.

Please send an expression of interest noting your areas of teaching interest and experience, as well as a current CV to the attention of Dr. Erik Kwakkel, Director, at ischool.recruit@ubc.ca. Deadline for submission is December 6th 2021.